DEAR FRIENDS OF THE SEQUOYAH COUNCIL:

We are excited to share that the Sequoyah Council is moving past the impact of the global pandemic with a greatly expanded youth service model. Capital construction continues at Camp Davy Crockett to meet the demand of the over 4,000 visitors each summer season.

Improvements to infrastructure as well as program facilities have built a strong reputation for our camp. This season, we will welcome scouts from 18 states to the mountains of Northeast Tennessee and Southwest Virginia. We are especially thankful for friends like you who invest their time, talent, or treasure to enrich the lives of local children.
